Brother Alton's ancestor's accent wanders a bit, wouldn't you say? I think he's already been to Australia.

Please.

Don't make me filk the "Brutesquad of Seville", featuring the infamous Dread Pirate Aria.

It's not worth the collateral damage.

Didn't Victor Borge already do that one?

Anything worth doing was done by Victor Borge. Or Tom Lehrer.

But some of us like to sprinkle a little bit of musical misery after the glorious monsoons of the Greats.

Or, of course, The Goons. :)

And of course, Canada's own Frantiks.

Now, those I do not know. But I can offer the Chaser team as a southern-hemisphere addition to the frolics...

He's done a lot of Sondheim on Broadway.

Clearly you've never heard of Sunday in the Park with George. :D It's okay. Not a lot of people have.

He's done a fair bit of Broadway, actually. Not extensive, but he won a Tony for playing Ché in Evita -- I think the original Broadway cast -- in 1979, and he was nominated for a couple of others.

So yes. ;) Patinkin sings.

I love that (I'm pretty sure) they did up AB's hair to resemble George Hearn in the old TV production.
